IMMERSION PROGRAM CURRICULUM

TEACHER TRACK. This track focuses on individual development for those who are interested in enhancing, refreshing, or extending their individual instruction skills. Curriculum includes classroom techniques, learning theory, leadership, and assessment framed in the context of information literacy. Participants selected for the Teacher Track will prepare a description of an instructional situation and a related presentation in advance of the immersion program. During Immersion, participants will revise the presentation based on feedback from colleagues and faculty.

Introduction

Researching topics related to planning often crosses disciplinary boundaries and requires information in a number of formats, including books, articles, maps, and statistics. This brief subject guide provides an overview of resources you might find useful during your research.

Developing Keywords

Choosing appropriate search terms is an important first step in the research process. Take a few moments to brainstorm a list of keywords that describe your topic. Here is a partial list of terms you can use to find material related to planning. As you search for material, you will most likely use several different keywords, combining them into more complex queries.

- Cities and towns
- City planning
- Community development
- Development
- Ecology
- Gerontisation
- Growth
