The Technology of Art
A Printed Book of Hours in Latin and French

- Printed by Ulrich Gering and Berthold Rembolt for Simon Vostre, 8 September 1498. Incunabula printed in red and black with red initials and rubrics
- A collaborative purchase with CU Art, History, and English Literature librarians and gift funds in FY09-10
- Record in Worldcat and Chinook
- In addition to CU Boulder only available in US at the Pierpont Morgan Library in NYC
- Instructional use in art, English, history, religious studies, Latin, education, and book arts
- 16 large metalcuts and 29 small metalcuts
- Used as a primer by children to learn how to read

Contact spc@colorado.edu or deborah.hollis@colorado.edu
Paper engineering by Colette Fu
Axi Fire Festival: a pop-up book

- A photographic artist book also held in the collections at Occidental College (CA), University of Connecticut, Bucknell University, and Lafayette College (PA). Record in WorldCat.
- 2010 edition from We are the Tiger People Series used for art, ethnic and women’s studies instruction. http://www.colettefu.com/