ART LIBRARIES SOCIETY OF NORTH AMERICA
MOUNTAIN WEST CHAPTER

PURPOSE:

To promote the activities of the Art Libraries Society of North America (ARLIS/NA) within the Mountain West states and engage in any activities consistent with that purpose.

HISTORY:

ARLIS/MW was established in 1996 by librarians from Arizona, Colorado, Idaho, Nevada, New Mexico, Utah, and Wyoming with an interest in the development of art library resources within those states.

ACTIVITIES:

Advocate for art librarians in museum, professional, and educational organizations; hold annual conferences in order to provide educational opportunities in the form of guest speakers, tours of libraries and museums, and art collections across the Mountain West region.
